PSHE - This weekend is National Simplicity Day. Ideas to celebrate the day are to try and embrace a simpler lifestyle by taking breaks from devices, spend time in nature and take time to slow down and focus on the present.

Why don't you try...

Greenhill News

This week, I was thrilled to welcome the Young BAFTA Roadshow with Place2Be as part of our Art Week celebrations. It was a fantastic opportunity for our pupils to explore their creativity and meet professionals from the screen industries.

The day was hosted by TV presenters De-Graft Mensah and Kia Pegg, with a special visit from games designer and storyteller Michelle Collier. Our children took part in a range of fun, engaging activities that helped build their confidence, spark their imaginations, and show them the many exciting career paths in the creative industries.

As part of Art Week, it was wonderful to see our pupils expressing themselves and thinking big about their futures. The visit is part of the Young BAFTA Roadshow's ongoing work with Place2Be, aiming to raise aspirations, promote creative skills, and support emotional wellbeing in primary schools. I'm so proud we could be part of it—it's been an inspiring and joyful day for everyone.
